Introduction

Pirton Pre School are committed to ensuring that any personal data we hold about you and your child is protected in accordance with data protection laws and is used in line with your expectations.

This privacy notice explains what personal data we collect, why we collect it, how we use it and how we protect it.

What personal data does Pirton Pre School collect?

We collect personal data about you and your child to provide care and learning that is tailored to meet your child's individual needs. We also collect information in order to verify your eligibility for free childcare as applicable.

Personal details that we collect about your child include:

- your child's name, date of birth, address, health and medical needs, development needs, and any special educational needs, any information shown on identification provided.

Where applicable we will obtain child protection plans from social care and health care plans from health professionals.

We will also ask for information about who has parental responsibility for your child and any court orders pertaining to your child.

Personal details that we collect about you include:

- your name, home and work address, phone numbers, email addresses, emergency contact details, and family details

This information will be collected from you directly in the registration form.

If you apply for up to 30 hours free childcare, we will also collect:

- your national insurance number or unique taxpayer reference (UTR), if you're self-employed. We may also collect information regarding benefits and family credits that you are in receipt of.

Why Pirton Pre School collect this information and the legal basis for handling your data

We use personal data about you and your child in order to provide childcare services and fulfil the contractual arrangement you have entered into. This includes using your data to:

- contact you in case of an emergency
- to support your child's wellbeing and development
- to manage any special educational, health or medical needs of your child whilst at the setting
- to carry out regular assessment of your child's progress and to identify any areas of concern
- to maintain contact with you about your child's progress and respond to any questions you may have
- to process your claim for up to 30 hours free childcare
- to keep you updated with information about our service

With your consent, we will also record your child's activities for their individual learning record. This may include photographs and videos which are uploaded onto an electronic learning journey. You will have the opportunity to withdraw your consent at any time, for images taken by confirming so in writing.

We have a legal obligation to process safeguarding related data about your child should we have concerns about their welfare. We also have a legal obligation to transfer records and certain information about your child to the school that your child will be attending.

Who Pirton Pre School share your data with

In order for us to deliver childcare services we will also share your data as required with the following categories of recipients:

- Ofsted – during an inspection or following a complaint about our service
- the Local Authority (where you claim up to 30 hours free childcare as applicable)
- the government's eligibility checker (as above)
- our accountant
- our insurance underwriter (if applicable)
- the school that your child will be attending
- Members of the Pre School committee
- Current and future childcare providers i.e if your child attends the pre school and another setting we may share your child's assessments/next steps with them
- Outside agencies in relation to Special Education Needs and Support

We will also share your data if:

- We are legally required to do so, for example, by law, by a court or the Charity Commission;
- to enforce or apply the terms and conditions of your contract with us;
- to protect your child and other children; for example by sharing information with social care or the police;
- it is necessary to protect our rights, property or safety, or those of others
- We transfer the management of the setting, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective buyer so they may continue the service in the same way.

We will never share your data with any other organisation to use for their own purposes

How does Pirton Pre School protect your data?

We protect unauthorised access to your personal data and prevent it from being lost, accidentally destroyed, misused, or disclosed by:

Storing all paper documents in lockable filing cabinets or cupboards. Shredding any documents in a GDPR compliant shredder.

All electronic documentation and information is stored on the Pre School's computer and/or the Pre School laptop, both of which are password protected.

How long does Pirton Pre School retain your data?

We retain your child's personal data for up to 3 years after your child no longer uses the setting, or until our next Ofsted inspection after your child leaves the setting. Medication records and accident records are kept for longer according to legal requirements. Your child's learning and development records are maintained by us. You are given the opportunity to download your child's learning journey upon their departure. Once you have downloaded it, your child's account including any personal data held on it is deactivated and deleted permanently.

Updated 2.5.18

In some instances (child protection, or other support service referrals) we are obliged to keep your data for longer if it is necessary to comply with legal).
